

Ethics in Education: A to Z May 1-2, 2015

A two-day conference for teachers, students, parents, educational administrators and concerned citizens covering major ethical issues at all levels of American education, presented jointly by the Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust, the University of Miami and Miami-Dade County Public Schools.

More than 50 speakers and panelists including Superintendent Alberto Carvalho, Dr. Andres Alonso, Coach Al Golden, Dr. Kenneth Goodman, David Lawrence, Jr., Dr. Sue Legg, Chief Ian Moffett, Dr. Isaac Prilleltensky, Dr. Marilyn Neff, Judge Edward Newman, Robert Steinback, Dr. Susan Mullane, Annette Boyd-Pitts, Dr. Elizabeth Washington, Prof. Anita Cava, Octavio Visiedo, Mary Cagle, Katy Sorenson, Dr. Philip Lazarus and others.

Hot topics include: Teaching to the Test * The Allure & Power of School Sports * School Choice * The Immigrant Influx * Civics Education * Bullying * Race and Justice * School Policing * Social Media * The “Tiger Mother” * Ethics Bowl and more!

Reception & keynote, Fri. May 1, 2015, 5:30-9 p.m., University of Miami Storer Auditorium

- Hors d’oeuvres, wine and beer
- Lifetime Ethics Achievement Award presentation to former Chief Justice Gerald Kogan
- Address by Principal Baruti Kafele, educational consultant, motivational speaker, author and former notable New Jersey school administrator.

Daylong conference, Sat. May 2, 2015, 7:45 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the beautifully renovated and historic Miami Senior High School. Price includes breakfast, lunch and all materials.

Miami-Dade County Public School employees will earn up to 12 Master Plan Points!

The cost is $50 for both days; $25 for Friday evening reception only or $40 for Saturday conference only. Full time students can attend Saturday session only for $15.

For detailed information and registration, visit ethics.miamidade.gov or call 305-579-2594.