

Miami-Dade County Public Schools students visit PAMM for free!

English

PAMM Student Pass holders receive free admission anytime they want to visit and they may bring (1) adult guest for free with them. Sign up for the PAMM Student Pass at the museum's front desk. A PAMM Student Pass is valid through August 31 of each year. Beginning September 1, Miami-Dade County Public Schools students may re-enroll for free.

To enroll, students or parents may follow the PAMM Student Pass link in their M-DCPS online portal, fill out the form, and bring it to PAMM. We will also have applications at the front desk of the museum during regular museum hours.

PAMM Student Pass is supported by Pérez Art Museum Miami. PAMM education initiatives are made possible by endowed funds granted by the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation and Heckscher Foundation for Children to underwrite the museum's broad portfolio of education programs. Together with leadership support from Miami-Dade County, these funders enable the museum to transform the lives of young people in our community through our art education programs.
