Dear Students and Parents,

Superintendent Alberto M. Carvalho and I believe art education is indispensable at Miami-Dade County Public Schools and beyond. In a significant effort to foster and encourage a love for the arts among students, Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) in conjunction with Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS) is excited to announce the PAMM Student Pass.

The PAMM Student Pass grants free admission to the museum for students in grades K-12, who are currently attending Miami-Dade County Public Schools. Pass holders receive free admission anytime they want to visit and they may bring (1) adult guest for free with them.

To enroll, students and parents should follow the PAMM Student Pass link in their M-DCPS online portals, fill out the form, and bring it to the museum. The link will be available on both the student and parent portals until April 16, 2018. Applications will also be available at the front desk of the museum year-round, during its regular hours. Students will receive their membership card on the day of their first visit.

The Pamm Student Pass expires on August 31st of every year and students are allowed to re-enroll beginning September 1st free of charge – as long as they are still attending a Miami-Dade County Public School.

As the flagship museum for Miami-Dade County for almost 35 years, PAMM believes art has the power to enrich the lives of all people and is an integral part of the development of all students.

With this program, we hope that M-DCPS students nurture or discover their love and appreciation for the arts.

See you soon at PAMM!

Sincerely,

Franklin Sirmans
Director
Pérez Art Museum Miami
