

Parental Involvement Month Video Contest

The Florida Department of Education recognizes November as Parental Involvement in Education Month, highlighting the many ways families can engage in their students' academic success.

All Florida parents, grandparents and legal guardians are encouraged to participate. Do you volunteer in your child's classroom, create innovative learning activities at home or come up with unique ways to stay involved? These are just a few ideas for your video entry.

Submissions must be no longer than two minutes and convey ways to stay involved and engaged in your child's education. Submit your video entry by tweeting the video (or video link) to @educationfl or posting the video on the department's Facebook page by Monday, November 17, 2014.

Remember, videos do not have to be professional quality, but we encourage all participants to find creative ways to share their message. If you have any questions or concerns, email communicationsoffice@fldoe.org.
